Preface

The purpose in printing this pamphlet is to provide for the pupil teachers of this school a list of the books in the three schoolroom libraries, comprising grades 1-6. The books, for the most part, are those of general literature and do not include the ones used in supplementary geography, history, or nature study, as these are shelved in the general library for the use of all the grades. The books for grades 7-9 are kept in the general library and, while circulated mainly among the pupils of these grades, are accessible to any student of the Normal School. It has not seemed wise to include these in the list.

Some of the books intended for certain grades may seem too old for the average child; these are intended for the brighter pupils of the grade or for reading aloud. On the other hand, some of the books are too easy for the average child; these are intended for the pupil for whom reading is difficult. In many cases cheaper editions than the one indicated may be obtained.

Charging System

The charging system is modeled after that in use in the public library of Oak Park, Illinois, for schoolroom libraries. The books are all charged on the regular book card to whatever room the books are sent and these cards are filed in the general library. Each book of the schoolroom library has, in addition to the regular book card, a manila book card. These manila book cards, arranged alphabetically, are sent in a charging case to each room. When a book is withdrawn the name of the child withdrawing it is written on the manila card by the teacher. The card is then filed with the cards of the books which are in circulation. The system is simple and necessitates little work on the part of the teacher.

Purchase of Books

Experience has shown that it is cheaper to buy books for a schoolroom library from a firm dealing in the books of all publishers than to buy from the publisher direct. In buying books from one firm a saving is effected in postage and transportation charges as well as in the larger discounts given. If the books are intended for a schoolroom library, this fact should be stated in the order and larger discounts will usually be obtained.

Lists of Books

The following are a few of the best lists of children's books, which should prove useful in the selection of books for a school library. Inasmuch as these lists are prepared by librarians who have made a study of the best books for children they should be used in selecting books rather than publishers' catalogues and announcements or the representations of book agents.

Dayton—Library board.

Dayton public library and museum manual; containing a selected list of six hundred of the best books for children to be found in the Dayton public library; and a list of stories for children under twelve. Dayton public library, Dayton, Ohio. 1907. 36p. $.10.

Arranged by grade with a few short annotations.

Hewins, Caroline Maria.

Books for boys and girls. A. L. A. Publishing Board, 1 Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois. 1904. 56p. $.15.

Moore, Annie Carroll.

List of books recommended for a children's library; compiled for the Iowa library commission. Iowa library commission, Des Moines, Iowa. n. d. 22p. $.10.

A classified subject list with no annotations. The suggestions for the selection and purchase of children's books are excellent.

Pittsburg—Carnegie library.

Catalogue of books annotated and arranged and provided by the Carnegie library of Pittsburgh for the use of the first eight grades in the Pittsburgh schools. Pittsburgh, Carnegie library. 1907. 331p. $.50.

"The admirable notes will be found especially valuable".

Catalogue of books in the children's department. Pittsburgh, Carnegie library. 1909. 604p. $1.00.

"It is in three parts; author list, subject index, title list. Class numbers, notes, date, publisher and price are given in the author list and the titles chosen as best reading have a star prefixed." A. L. A. Booklist. March 1909; 5:82.

If anyone organizing a school library wishes additional information he may obtain it by writing to the librarian of the Eastern Illinois State Normal School.
